THE - Diary of a 49'er

FROM THE BOOK EDITED BY C. L. CANFIELD

Early in the week a miner came down from Sailor Ravine and told us that up on the ridge where the emigrant road comes through the mountains, a party was camped and were in distress and that he was going into town to get relief for them. Pard, who is always first when aid for the sick or sore is wanted, volunteered to go with him and hurry along the supplies and suggested that I should take the horse, ride up where they were and hearten them up a bit by letting them know that a relief party was coming. I found them camped about eight miles up the ridge and they were certainly in a bad fix. There were three families, men and their wives and five children, one baby not a month old that had been born on the Humboldt desert. The mother was nothing but skin and bone, a young woman, and she could scarcely walk she was so weak and worn out. It was pitiful to see her cling to and try to nurse the baby, so forlorn that the sight would have melted a heart of stone. The rest of them did not look much better and one, a young girl fourteen years old, was sick to the point of death. They had four yoke of oxen, who were walking skeletons, and, to look at them, it was a miracle that they had succeeded in crossing the

ACTON CLEVELAND SELLS MEEK MERCANTILE CO. TO FRANK LONG

CAMPTONVILLE: A business deal was recently consumated wherein the general mercantile business of the Meek Mercantile Company, owned and operated by Acton M. and Maudelene M. Cleveland, has been sold to Frank O. Long, of San Francisco, the latter to take over the operation of the business as of August 1st, and will be known as the Long Mercantile Company.

The Meek Mercantile Company, probably the oldest continuous operating busniess in Yuba county, was established by John R. Meek in 1855, continued by he late William Bull Meek, and from his time up to the present date by the Cleveland family.

The new owner has been in business in San Francisco for the past many years, and a few years ago, he purchased the Morehead place, and later the old Dietrich ranch above town, where he has a summer home and has spent much time.

Long has leased the present store space and equipment of the present mercantile establishment, and will add some features to the business, enlarging some departments thereof. He intends to operate the general merchandise business along the same line it has been operated during the past. He plans on building an office in the rear of the store.

The Clevelands intend to remain in the biulding in which is located the Camptonville Post Office, with Maudelene M. Cleveland as Postmaster, and Acton M. Cleveland will continue to conduct the office of his Insurance Agency, Camptonville Water Works, and Justice of the Peace.

KEEP ALERT IN TRAFFIC

In this motorized age live safely by keeping alert in traffic, urges the California State Automobile Association. Walk and drive carefully. "Take it Easy," and don't take chances.

STILL GOING STRONG

Almost 40 per cent of the motor vehicles produced in this country since 1900 are on the highways today, it is reported by the California State Automobile Association.

ROUGH ROADS AFFECT LIGHTS

If a car is taken over rough roads at high speeds for a considerable period, the headlight adjustment is likely to be adversely affected, declare officials of National Automobiles Club's Service Department. It will pay, therefore, to have the focusing and aiming of the lights checked at reasonable periods.

California had an estimated need of 46,250 hospital beds for mental patients in 1946, with only 27,450 such beds available.

Supervisors Are Servants Of The People, Says Veteran-Candidate

Harley M. Leete, Jr.
Candidate for Supervisor

CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR LOOKS TO COUNTY'S CITIZENS FOR IMPORTANT IDEAS

NEVADA CITY: Harley M. Leete, Jr., candidate or County Supervisor, said in an interview today that he advocated more cordial official relationships between the Board of Supervisors and the people of the County.

"When the citizens come before the board," said Leete, "with suggestions advice, pleas, grievances, complaints, or criticism, they should always be accorded a thoughtful and courteous hearing. There is much of value to be learned from the suggestions of the citizenry as a whole, who are frequently better acquainted with individual problems of the county than any public official in particular."

"As long as the subject matter of the citizen's message is pertinent to the business of the county, it should be accorded the most thorough of hearings. In this way, valuable information or ideas will not be 'brushed off' or lost.

"The Supervisors are the servants of the people, and basic acknowledgement of this important factor will do much to smooth the work of the County," concluded Leete, well-known businessman and veteran of World War II.

Flying Sportsmen To Build Clubhouse

GRASS VALLEY: The Grass Valley Flying Sportsmen have rented space in the Gilmore Field of George Endter, on which to erect a club house, 37 by 20 feet in base dimensions.

The club members are local business men who hold private flying certificates. The club expects to purchase a plane for the use of the club this Summer.

Officers of the club are George Raddue, president; George L. Latin, secretary-treasurer; William Page, Robert Roesner, and O. P. Steele, directors.

CAMPTONVILLE NEWS

By Acton M. Cleveland

CAMPTOVILLE: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rose were business visitors at Grass Valley Friday and Saturday.

William C. Reed returned Wednesday from a two week visit at Oakland and San Francisco.

Tommy Bartsch made a brief business trip to Nevada City Thursday.

Bud Hawk came up from Oakland Wednesday to spend a few days visiting here.

Gene Hummel left Thursday for his home at Grass Valley after a couple of days visit to his old home here.

A. C Pierce came up from Nevada City on business Friday. He was accompanied by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Breese.

Walter Fore, Superintendent of the Skyline Ranch, was a business visitor at Grass Valley Friday.

Rev. Father Gabrielli of Nevada City celebrated mass at the local Catholic Church Sunday noon.

Mrs. Bain F Crawford made a trip to Grass Valley Sunday to attend her daughter Sandra confined in a hospital there with illness.

Mrs. Louisa Price returned home Saturday from a few days visit at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams and son Howard were business visitors at Sacramento Saturday.

Mrs. George Fossey of Larkspur was a business visitor in town Thursday. She came up from North San Juan with her brother, Ed H. Kohler

Ralph E. Rogers returned Friday from a business trip to the bay area.

PERSONALS

GRASS VALLEY: Mrs. William Horan, and her son, Clayton, left last Tuesday on a motor trip through the Southern states and along the Atlantic coast. They expect to return by way of the Middle West.

Mrs. Lila Stevens of Oakland is visiting Mrs. John Harris of Clark Street.

Mrs. W. A. Harries of Winchester Street has been entertaining Mrs. Alma LaCrosse and sons, Keneth, Robert and Gary, who have now returned to their home in Los Gatos, Santa Clara County. Kenneth will resume his studies in Stanford University.

DIAMOND MATCH OFFICE BURNS OUT

GRASS VALLEY: A brisk hot fire, originating in a wood burning heating stove recently destroyed the office and records of the Diamond Match Company at the corner of Bennett and West Main Street.

The fire department called at 1:10 p. m. had the fire out in one hour. The heat was so intense that one of the front plate glass windows was bulging almost to the breaking point when they arrived.

The administrative offices and the building hardware and tool store adjoining were destroyed but the firemen saved the rear portion of the big building, consisting of a drive-in shed stored with dry finishing lumber.

Fire Chief Dan Asnicar stated that had the fire occurred at night, the damage would have far exceeded the estimated $2,000 done in the offices. The wood fire had been left burning when the office closed at noon for Good Friday services.

CAMPTONVILLE RITES UNITE RIDGE COUPLE

CAMPTOVILLE: Charles Sydney Townsend, son of Mr. Vernon F. Lyons, of this place, and Miss Laverna Lee Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bain F. Crawford of Pike City, were married Easter Sunday afternoon at a wedding ceremony in the parlor of the Hotel Francis, Judge Acton M Ceveland performing the ceremony.

The bridal procession wos preceded by little Susan Polkinghorn as flower girl, the bride attired in a gray suit with pink accessories, on the arm of her father, Bain Crawford, attended by Mrs. Thomas Polkinghorn, as Matron of Honor, and Miss Barbara Townsend, sister of the groom as Brides Maid and Henry LeBars as best man.

At the beginning of the ceremony two vocal selections were rendered, "O Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly," by William Tobiassen, a cousin of the groom of Nevada City.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the dining room of the hotel with refreshments being served the guests, the bride and groom cutting the large wedding cake.

The groom is employed by the Oregon Creek Lumber Company and the young couple will make their home here.

The following were among the out of town attendants at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tobiassen, William Tobiassen, and Dave Tobiassen, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert DeBack, of Nevada City, Mrs. Lawrence Schaughnessy, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Polkinghorn, and Patricia Gibbons, of San Francisco, and Jack Townsend of Truckee.

Clarence Poole Heads Former Beale Ranchers

GRASS VALLEY: The Nevada-Yuba County Land Owners Association yesterday announced the election of officers. The association consists of former owners of the Camp Beale military reservation

Officers elected are Clarence Poole, president; Chandler Church, vice president; M. Palmerton, secretary-treasurer; and William Peckham and Dean Beyer, directors.

Attorney Frank G. Finnegan of Nevada City aided in organization procedure.

TREE PLANTING PLANNED FOR BLOODY RUN

GRASS VALLEY: Boy Scouts of this city, during their Easter vacation, will aid Tahoe National Forest personnel in planting several thousand trees in Bloody Run section near North Bloomfield which was burned over last summer.

The trees to be planted are two year stock grown at the forest nursery near Placerville, El Dorado County, about 18 inches high. Approximately 175 acres are to be replanted. The rest of the burned over terrain is on private property or to precipitous for planting.

Sam Partridge, scout master, and forest rangers will supervise the planting. The boys are to gather tomorrow morning at the Scout Lodge, where trucks will pick them up for the trip to Bloody Run.

PACE THAT KILLS

The pace that kills is often the pace set by the running pedestrian who dashes out into traffic lanes, warns the California State Automobile Association. Before crossing a street or highway, stop, look and listen; then walk, don't run.

mountains, as they were in deep snow all the way until they reached their last camping ground, where they had got out of it and in a place where there was some grass feed for their cattle. Their grub had given out and they did not have enough provisions on hand for another meal. It was one of the saddest plights I ever saw, but I cheered them up and told them they need not worry any more as there would be plenty for them all before sundown.

JUNE 1, 1851—We are certainly having glorious weather. The days are getting a little warm, but the nights are cool and one, to be comfortable, has to sleep under a blanket. We gather up the fresh pine needles occasionally and renew our mattress filling, and the pine smell is not only very pleasant but also seems to be a regular sleeping tonic. The longer one lives here the more the country grows on one. When I was at San Francisco, where it was foggy, windy and disagreeable, my thoughts turned to the mountains and I longed to get back to Rock Creek again. Pard has his theory about it and in his learned way says the main charm is that we go back to nature, where we belong; throw off our artificial civilization and turn Pagans, and that the closer we get to Mother Earth the more we are in accord with what the Great Cause intended for us. This all may be, but pork and beans get monotonous just the same as having none but the society of men makes one wish for the sight of, and companionship with a woman. Still, I am afraid I am getting spoiled for I do not feel as if I could take up again the drudgery and hard work of my old life, and if it was not for the old folks I should care very little about going gack to New England again.

We heard from our emigrants and they are all right. Two of the men have hired out to the boss of the saw mill on Deer Creek and with the oxen are going to snake logs this summer for the mill. The family with the sick girl came over to Blue Tent and have settled down there. The miners in that vicinity have done everything to make them comfortable and are putting on airs because a white family is living there. The sick girl is well again and as lively as a kitten.

ELKS ANNUAL DINNER DANCE BIG SUCCESS

GRASS VALLEY: Elks and their ladies thoroughly enjoyed the dinner and dance given by the lodge last Saturday night. It was regarded as one of the most successful in recent years.

In the banquet hall a full course dinner was served with southern fried chicken as the principal viand. Dancing followed in the ballroom until 2 o'clock in the morning.

Andre George and Walter Magraw prepared the dinner and received many compliments on their culinary ability.

The occasion was in honor of retiring exalted Ruler O. P. Steele and the newly elected exalted ruler, Fred E. Nettell.

WASHINGTON NOTES

By Congressman Clair Engle
Washington D. C., March 29, 1948

FEUD'N AND FIGHT'N

In the hearings on the Folsom Dam Project just completed, Californians treated the assembled Congressmen from other parts of the United States to the spectacle of a good old-fashioned family row. Congress is getting to expect any project involving California to bring forth charges and countercharges.

The first day of the hearing Congressman Poulson of Los Angeles opposed certain of the projects supported by Congressman Miller of Alameda County and Congressman Jack Anderson of Santa Clara County. Some people may wonder why a Los Angeles Congressman would be interesting himself in a project some 800 miles to the north. However, he did and the resulting verbal fireworks between Congressman Poulson and Congressman Miller were such that the Committee Chairman finally struck the remarks of both contestants from the record. Subsequently, the feud was continued just outside the Committeeroom door with lapel grabbing, fist shaking and loud and tumultuous argument. At this writing things are fairly serene between those two.

However, the next day on somewhat the same grounds Congressman Poulson ran head-on into the distinguished Chairman of the Committee, Congressman Welsh of San Francisco. The mutual denunciation was equally severe but this time the remarks remained in the record. Thereafter the general amity in the California family was contributed to by State Water Resources Board Chairman Royall Miller, who took the witness stand and said he was opposed to the bill to authorize the project in its present form

This boiled down into an argument about what Governor Warren of California was willing to support and what had been said at certain conferences at Sacramento between the Governor and local interested parties. Mr. Miller offered what he alleges to be a bill approved by the Governor as a substitute for the Committee's consideration but very quickly quit talking about it when the fact developed that the language of the bill would have caused it to be referred to an entirely different Committee. All of this confusion had a tendency to prevent a serious and orderly consideration by the Committee of the development of the Folsom Dam project, which will produce water and power so essential to California now and in the future.

Some people have wondered why the California delegation as a group does not have influence in the Congress equal to that of some other Delegations which are no larger—such as Texas. It is because Californians some way or other haven't acquired the knack of reconciling their differences and presenting a united front on projects of vital interest to the State.

Notwithstanding these difficulties, at the end of the hearing it appeared that the possibility of getting out a bill authorizing the project is fairly good. We are in agreement that the dam should have a million acre foot reservoir, to be built by the Army Engineers and to be operated when constructed by the Bureau of Reclamation as an integral part of the Central Valley Project. There is disagreement as to the authorization of Alameda, Contra Costa and Santa Clara Counties' projects, but we have been able to keep the Sly Park project in El Dorado County out of these controversies and everyone is agreed it should be authorized for immediate construction along with the dam and power plant.

The El Dorado County delegation, consisting of State Senator H. E. Dillinger, W. E. Jenkinson of the El Dorado Irrigation District, and James Irving, prominent fruit grower and shipper, made splendid presentations to the committee, as did Mayor Harold Johnson of Roseville, representing the American River Development league.

The Mission Manzanillo, Sevillano and Ascolano are commercially important varieties of olives in California.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

Christian Science Society of Nevada City holds services every Sunday in their church at 114 Boulder Street at 11 o'clock. Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. Wednesday evening testimonial meetings are held on the first and third Wednesdays of each month at 8 o'clock.

Our Reading Room is in the Church foyer. It is open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, holidays excepted, from 2 to 4 P. M.

The public is cordially invited to attend our services and visit the Reading Room.

"Thine. O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all" (I Chronicles 29:11). This is the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, March 28. The subject is "Reality."

Included in the sermon are the following citations:

Luke: "And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And he laid his hand on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God" (13: 11,13).

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If sickness is true or the idea of Truth, you cannot destroy sickness, and it would be absurd to try. Then classify sickness and error as our Master did, when he spoke of the sick, 'whom Satan hath bound,' and find a sovereign antidote for error in the life-giving power of Truth acting on human belief, a power which opens the prison doors to such as are bound, and sets the captive free physically and morally." (p. 495).

A Lecture on CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Christian Science: The Science of Life and Healing

by Robert S. Van Atta, C. S. of Rochester, New York

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Introduction by Mrs. Ivah M. Sayers was as follows: Friends: We are happy to welcome you here this evening as guests of Christian Science Society of Nevada City.

There is probably no question of such general interest to mankind as one of healing—the healing of sin, sickness, sorrow and suffering. In other words, the attainment of health, harmony, success and peace. As we listen to the message that will be given this evening, we shall learn something of this healing as it is revealed to us through the study of Christian Science. Our speaker is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

His subject is Christian Science; The Science of Life and Healing.

I am happy to present to you Robert S. Van Atta of Rochester, New York. Mr. Van Atta

The lecturer spoke in part substantially as follows:

The general misunderstanding of the teaching and method of Jesus has been a great tragedy to mankind. It has brought untold misery and suffering to the race. The man Jesus was a human being. He was born of a virgin mother, was brought up, lived his life, did his work, and finally disappeared from the human scene. How did he differ from other men? In the fact that, although he was human, yet his character was an expression of the divine—it was an nearly divine as it is possible for any human character to be. Through the Godlike character of his human life he bridged the gulf between God and men; he brought heaven down to earth. He demonstrated the coincidence between the human and the divine.

The Bible gives us no description of the Master's face or form, but it does give us accurate and beautiful accounts of his spiritual nature and work. Jesus taught morality and spirituality; he taught nothing material. He taught men how to be good and how to be free by teaching them how to think correctly. If we hope to emulate Jesus in living a truly good life we must understand the Principle and action of his thoughts. We must understand the Mind of Christ, the divine Spirit which animated Jesus.

The communication of true thoughts from God to man is due to the relationship which exists between God and man. Let me read to you a paragraph from Science and Health (p. 336):

"Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent and coeternal with that Mind. He has been forever in the eternal Mind, God; but infinite Mind can never be in man, but is refleced by man. The spiritual man's consciouness and individuality are reflections of God. They are the emanations of Him who is Life, Truth, and Love. Immortal man is not and never was material, but always spiritual and eternal."

Realizing our oneness with eternal Mind, we shall find spiritually right thinking is natural and unlabored.

Humanly speaking, we need to change our minds. How is this to be done? Many believe they can do it themselves. They believe they have a power within themselves which they call "will power" by which they are able to control and regulate their mental processes. It is also believed that one person can influence another through the medium of the human will. But will power is not scientific, because it is a belief of an effect without a cause, an attempt to separate the creator from His creation.

Human will power is characterized in Science and Health (p. 490) as "an animal propensity, not a faculty of Soul. Hence," the statement continues, "it cannot govern man aright. Christian Science reveals Truth and Love as the motive-powers of man. Will—cooperates with appetite and passion. From this cooperation arises its evil. From this also comes its powerlessness, since all power belongs to God, good."

It should be clearly understood that Christian Science healing is not brought about by human will power. Truth shows us a more excellent way—the Christian way of meekness, patience, and intelligent faith in God.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS DANCE

GRASS VALLEY: Job's Daughters last Saturday evening gave their annual spring dance, Easter Serenade, in the Veterans Memorial Building. Beatrice Bennetts was in general charge of the affair.

Decorations consisted of paintings of spring flowers and Easter motif designs. The musicians were the Down Beats led by Robert Verran. The dance was invitational, tickets only being available from members.

Congress has provided that 25 per cent of all national forest receipts shall be turned over to the States for distribution to counties containing national forest lands, as a contribution in liew of taxes.

Liberals are disappearing from the government scene these days because it was discovered they were too liberal with the contents of the U. S Treasury—Jefferson City, Mo., Post-Tribune.

The new Taft-Hartley Labor Law prohibits organized political activity by corporations and labor unions. It is being fought in courts by labor leaders. In Indiana, for instance, unions are raising a fund of $258,000 to defeat Indiana members of Congress who voted for the act. The nine Republican Representatives in Congress point out that each Hoosier Congressman may spend only $3,594 on his campaign.
